

Stephanie Earls

Librarian, Washington Geology Library

Stephanie runs the Washington Geology Library, which provides access to current and historical information about Washington State geology to Survey staff and the public. Her favorite part of her job is walking people through online tools like the WGS Geologic Information Portal. She ran the Natural Resources Library for the Utah Geological Survey before joining the WGS. Prior to becoming a librarian, she was an environmental consultant focused on groundwater remediation at contaminated industrial sites.

Job Responsibilities

Public Information Geologist (PIG)/research services, collection development, outreach, instruction of online geologic tools, NT HMP T sulnfo Alert newsletter editor.

Professional Interests

Washington geology, outreach and education, emergency management, use of augmented/virtual reality to get people of all ages excited about geology.

Skills

Adobe Illustrator, InDesign, ArcGIS, translating technical jargon to human.

Professional Experience

- Librarian, Washington Geological Survey, Olympia, WA
- Librarian, Utah Geological Survey, Salt Lake City, UT
- Environmental Consultant, Montgomery, Watson, & Harza, Salt Lake City, UT

Education

- M.L.I.S Master of Library and Information Science, University of Washington, Seattle, WA
- B.S. Geology, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT

Personal Interests

Mountain biking, bike touring, reading, cooking, my ancient cat.

Mountain biking in Sedona, AZ.