

Forest Practices Application/Notification (FPA/N) Fees

Type of Activity	New FPA	Renewal
Timber harvest
Small Forest Landowners (SFLO) that have harvested no more than an average volume of two million board feet/year during the past three years AND this FPA is for single contiguous ownership of one or more parcels	$100	$100
SFLO harvesting timber on non-contiguous units	$150	$150
Large forest landowners that are harvesting timber	$150	$150
Within city limits or an Urban Growth Area (UGA) *	$1500	$150
*On forestland within the city limits or urban growth area where landowner includes the following with their FPA: 1) a letter signed by the landowner AND Local Government Entity (LGE) stating the landowner will not convert the land to a non-forestry use for ten years; AND 2) a written ten-year management plan approved by DNR	$100 (SFLO)	$100 (SFLO)
	$150	$150
* Landowner with 20 or more contiguous acres of forest land inside the city limits or urban growth area where regulatory authority has been transferred to the Local Government Entity (LGE) AND their FPA includes the following: 1) a letter signed by the landowner AND the LGE stating the landowner will not convert the land to a non-forestry use for ten years; AND 2) a written ten-year forest management plan approved by the DNR	$100 (SFLO)	$100 (SFLO)
	$150	$150
Conversion of land to non-forestry use	$1500	$150
Activities not listed above	$0	$0
Note: An additional fee will be charged for resubmittals that are more than 45 days after the original FPA had been withdrawn/disapproved.

Reference: RCW 76.09.065(2)(b)(i) & RCW 76.09.450