

TFW Policy Committee
Summary of Anonymous Caucus Comments from November 2017 Meeting

Question #1: When I am most successful in my role at Policy, I am ____.

- I am being collaborative by sharing my caucus perspective and when I'm actively listening to other points of view.
- Listening and being heard.
- Prepared through between-meeting meetings/calls with other stakeholders about how to address the issue before us.
- Familiar with the technical aspects and resulting implications to my agency's mandates.
- Current on topics, well prepared, and know caucus position.
- Listening and participating.
- Articulate, happy, persuasive.
- An active listener.
- In the future.
- Contributing to durable decisions consistent with Policy ground rules and priorities.
- Listening and synthesizing.

Overall: 3 comments about being prepared; 4 comments about listening.

Question #2: What is most important to Policy right now?

- Responses on process or other topics:
 - Focus and making progress.
 - Willingness to collaborate authority to make decisions focused on priority (don't keep adding more).
 - Upholding ground rules. Re-affirming the goals and vision of FFR.
 - Developing more trust.
- Responses on substantive topics:
 - Keeping momentum toward resolving Type F.
 - Bringing resolution to commitment to SFLOs made in 1999 - Should trump all issues started after 1999.
 - Getting to some decisions that have been brewing for long time.
 - Creating a roadmap for response to Hardrock Study.
 - Type N.
 - Reconciling priorities.
 - SFLO.
 - Increasing the rule of progress on meeting CWA milestones.
- ...and just for fun: Coffee and Snacks

From November Policy meeting

Policy's responses to: What is the most important or significant thing we accomplished this year as a group?

- Responses related to Type F:
 - Getting the Board to take control of PHB issue after 10+ years of discussing w/o resolution in Policy.
 - Delivering the stream typing package to the Board.
 - Moved the ball toward permanent H2O typing rule.
 - Type F dispute resolution.
 - Getting the water typing process informed by science.
 - Making it the dispute - resolution on Type F.
- Responses related to process:
 - Working toward better communication and clearer roles and responsibilities.
 - We produced on accomplishments summary for the Board.
 - Budget prioritization process.
- Other responses:
 - Time in the field together.
 - A path forward for Type N.