

Daniel Coe, GISP

Graphics Editor

As a member of the GIS/Editing team, Daniel serves as the lead cartographer and graphics specialist for the Survey. Before moving north to Washington, he made maps and visualized data for the Oregon Department of Geology and Mineral Industries (DOGAMI).

Job Responsibilities

All things visual! Map design, illustration, photography, and video for WGS publications, presentations, and websites.

Professional Interests

Visual communication of geologic and geomorphic processes, natural hazards, and lidar-based landform visualization.

Skills

Adobe Creative Suite, ArcGIS, QT Modeler, Mapublisher, QGIS, Non-digital design and illustration.

Professional Experience

- GIS Analyst/Cartographer, DOGAMI, Portland, OR
- Cartographer, Cartesian Collective, Portland OR

Education

- B.A. in Geography and Russian Language, Portland State University, Portland, OR
- Associates Degree in Visual Communication, Art Institute of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA

Personal Interests

Wild mushroom hunting, family forest hikes, rockhounding, canoeing, photography, and traveling to new places, both near and far.