

DNR's Mission: In partnership with citizens and governments, the Washington State Department of Natural Resources provides innovative leadership and expertise to ensure environmental protection, public safety, perpetual funding for schools and communities, and a rich quality of life.

DNR Aquatic Land Management - Cherry Point Reserve

Joelene Boyd and Dennis Clark
Orca-Straits District
November 7, 2017

Activities since June 2017:

- Compliance site visit to Petrogas pier and dock
- Continue Birch Bay buoy removal efforts
- Correspondence with Phillips 66 – booming vessel

Petrogas Compliance Visit July 2017:

Petrogas Dock Maintenance

Replacing steel whale on north fender and rubber elements on the fenders.

July 10, 2017

Petrogas Dock Maintenance

Replace solid wood surface on walkways with grating and 60% light penetration.

Petrogas Dock Maintenance

Creosote pilings are being replaced with ACZA treated wood pilings.

Pilings shown in this photo have been encased with grout.

Petrogas Vessel Traffic

- 27 Vessels from February 2016 – January 2017
- Typically 2-3 vessels per month

Birch Bay Buoy Removal

April 28, 2017

Birch Bay Buoy Removal

2017 Activities

- May 3rd - sent general letter
- May 30th – tagged 12 buoys for removal
- July 24th – removed 10 buoys and anchors
- Sept 5th – follow-up site visit
- Sept-Oct – notified owners of unauthorized use and occupancy

Birch Bay Buoy Removal

Birch Bay Buoy Removal

Phillip 66 - Booming Vessel Moorage

DNR's Mission: In partnership with citizens and governments, the Washington State Department of Natural Resources provides innovative leadership and expertise to ensure environmental protection, public safety, perpetual funding for schools and communities, and a rich quality of life.

