Port Orchard Police Department

NOTICE OF INTENT TO OBTAIN CUSTODY (May 21, 2026)

VESSEL "8195" with Washington Registration #, or USCG #, or HIN #, or Unknown Registration WN 6473 SH

The Port Orchard Police Department has declared the vessel "8195", with Washington Registration WN 6473 SH as derelict or abandoned. The vessel is described as Commercial Boat 8195
The Port Orchard Police Department, acting as an authorized public entity with the authority granted in RCW 79.100, intends to take custody of the vessel on Date June 5, 2026 After taking custody of the vessel, The Port Orchard Police Department may use or dispose of it without further notice to the owner.

In order to keep the vessel, before the Custody Date, the owner must:

- Get authorization to moor or anchor the vessel in its current location, or
- Move it to an anchorage area, moorage facility, or storage location that authorizes the vessel.
- Remove the vessel from the water.

If the owner wants to reclaim the vessel after The Port Orchard Police Department has custody, or wants to challenge The Port Orchard Police Department's decision to take custody, an appeal must be filed with the Pollution Control Hearings Board (PCHB) electronically through the Case Management System (CMS), except as identified in WAC 371-08-361 (3)(e). If a party does not have the technological capacity to file electronically through the CMS, a party may file by personal delivery, commercial delivery, fax, electronic mail, or first-class, registered, or certified mail and serve a copy on The Port Orchard Police Department. Addresses are in the boxes below:
