NOTICE OF INTENT TO OBTAIN CUSTODY

Vessel of unknown name with unknown registration

The Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has declared the fiberglass runabout vessel with unknown name and with unknown registration as derelict or abandoned.

DNR intends to take custody of the vessel on July 24, 2026 (Custody Date). After taking custody, DNR may use or dispose of it without further notice. The owner is responsible for all related costs.

In order to keep the vessel, the owner must take one of the following actions before the Custody Date:

- Get authorization to moor or anchor the vessel in its current location, or
- Move it to an anchorage area, moorage facility that authorizes the vessel, or
- Remove the vessel from the water.

If the owner wants to reclaim the vessel after DNR has custody, or wants to challenge DNR's decision to take custody, an appeal must be filed with the Pollution Control Hearings Board (PCHB) electronically through the Case Management System (CMS), except as identified in WAC 371-08-361 (3)(e). If a party does not have the technological capacity to file electronically through the CMS, a party may file by personal delivery, commercial delivery, fax, electronic mail, or first-class, registered, or certified mail and serve a copy on DNR. The owner is then liable for any costs incurred by DNR in responding to the vessel. These costs may include all administrative costs incurred by DNR, removal and disposal costs, and costs associated with environmental damage directly or indirectly caused by the vessel. If there is a lawsuit, the successful party may receive reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. DNR also may pursue any other remedies available under law.
